Applicants have reviewed the Office Action mailed on November 20, 2002. Please amend the above-identified application as follows.

CLAIMS

Please rewrite the claims as follows:

86. (Currently Amended) A method for manufacturing an apparatus for containing objects, the method comprising:

forming first and second heat-conducting partial-shells, having first and second faces, respectively;

attaching at least one object to either the first or second partial-shell for thermal contact therebetween;

forming a housing by butting the first and second faces together;

enhancing heat transfer between the first and second heat-conducting partial-shells;

wherein enhancing heat transfer comprises, disposing a conformable thermally conducting material between the first and second heat-conducting partial-shells to provide void-free contact between the first and second faces.
